With pleasure we present Michael Bundon, our featured guest soloist for October, who will share with us a wide selection of music, closing with some of our favorite hymns. God has truly blessed Mike with a great musical talent. You must come and meet him, hear him, and receive the many blessings in song that this highly trained and experienced professional will impart.

As background, this Blount County native is a graduate of Porter HS, Carson-Newman and UT, garnering multiple Masters Degrees along the way. Mike is now retired after serving for 30 years as full-time Minister of Music at Beaver Dam Baptist Church, Knoxville. Since its beginning, Mike has participated as a member of the Century Men, a 100-member group of music directors from across the US. He has also served in the Southern Baptist Tennessee Men’s Choral. He and his wife, Joy, have three children and five grandchildren.

These poetic couplets should give you a fair approximation of what the KIT meetings are all about:

Keep In Touch has you in mind;
When you come here’s what you’ll find:
Tailored programs attuned to thrill;
Presented neatly with much skill.
Devotionals and prayers that greatly bless;
God’s healing balm for souls in stress.
Table arrangements so artfully placed;
God’s special seasons never erased.
Dine from a table of scrumptious fare;
In company with beautiful people we share.
We’ve all been taught to love our neighbor;
From that stance we shall not waiver.
There’ll always be a welcome chair,
And whispered hope that you’ll be there.
