NEWS FROM BOSTON

We were so blessed to spend a week with some members from Main Street Baptist Church in Rocky Top, TN.

What is next for Jason? Right now, we divide out time with three priorities. First, we take every opportunity we can to meet new people. We try to make every community event we possibly can including sporting events, volunteer opportunities and town hall meetings. We don't want to let an opportunity to meet someone new pass us by. Secondly, we are preparing for all the teams we will be having this summer. We are planning for Soccer Nights (a week-long soccer camp) a basketball camp, outreach events, ministry opportunities, clean-up events, fun in the park, etc. There will be 10 volunteer teams from various churches this summer and we are going to be swamped. Each one of these events require a number of meetings with city officials and an unusual amount of permits (I hate permits). After all these activities and events we will be having, along with all the new people we are meeting, our plan is to create enough momentum to launch this Fall. Will you commit to pray for this? Finally, we are constantly getting things prepared for the launch. This includes beginning a Bible study in our home, looking for a meeting facility to rent here in Winthrop, writing By-Laws, Church Covenants, our Statement of Faith, and articles of incorporation.

Our prayer requests:

--We are praying God would send a gifted musician to partner with us to help lead Harbor City Church.

--Pray for us as we plan our next interest meeting.

--Pray for us as we launch a Bible study in our home.

--Continue to pray for our family as we transition into Winthrop. Pray we are accepted into the community.

--Pray for us as we meet new people and develop new relationships.

--Pray for more opportunities to share our faith.

--Pray for the one God would have to be our worship leader. We are actively seeking the right person with musical ability and a pastor's heart to become part of our core team.

-- Pray we would find a location to meet in.

-- Pray for more partners to come alongside us as we prepare to plant.
