There is also music before the sermon performed by Greg Wilson each week. To watch the Sunday service, go to pgbctn.org. You will see a video link near the top of the page. Mother's Day Offering May 10th

Please remember to give to The Mother's Day Offering on May 10th, supporting Tennessee Baptist Children's Homes.
Two hundred ninety-one children were in safe, nurturing homes last year thanks to our Mother's Day gifts.

Beginning Saturday, May 16th, we will once again be holding services in the church sanctuary. We will be having four identical services:

Saturday at 6:00 PM
Sunday at 9:00 AM
Sunday at 10:15 AM
Wednesday at 6:33 PM

Each service will have the same music and sermon and will have no more than sixty people in the sanctuary. We ask that you email or call the church office and give your name and the number in your party (self + additional people) and which service you would like to sign up for. We will use this information to help get our numbers for each service.

We will be practicing social distancing. If you have a preexisting heart or lung condition or are in a high-risk group, it is highly suggested that you not start attending church just yet. The services will still be available online. There will not be a nursery. Do not be surprised to see that we will have removed the hymnals and do not have bulletins. Please feel free to bring and wear your mask if that makes you more comfortable.

Keep In Touch

From Karen Coppenger: I am beginning to go through my folder looking for people to contact about KIT. December is already booked with the return of James Bramblett showing photos from his latest trek around America. September will be a wonderful time to return to our monthly gatherings. May I say it will be awesome to see all of you. I would like to share some words from David Jeremiah's devotional book, "Daily in His Presence." Jesus may come in the next 53 seconds. So let's not lose a minute in anxious fretting about this world. Let's hold tightly to the truth found in Psalm 47:8, "God reigns over the nations; God sits on His holy throne" and remember Who is truly in charge.
